

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

VS.

SHAWN JENKINS,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 8:10CR413

TENTATIVE FINDINGS

The Court has received the Presentence Investigation Report (“PSR”) and the Defendant’s objections thereto (Filing No. 34).¹ The government adopted the PSR (Filing No. 33). See Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

The Defendant objects to the upward adjustment in ¶ 19 under U.S.S.G. § 2K2.1(b)(6) for using or possessing a firearm or ammunition in connection with another felony offense. The objection will be heard, and the burden is on the Defendant by a preponderance of the evidence.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Defendant's objections to ¶ 19 will be heard at sentencing;
2. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

¹It does not appear that the objections were first submitted to the Probation Officer as required under the sentencing schedule, resulting in no discussion of the objection in the Addendum to the PSR. Additionally, the basis for the objection was not stated.

3. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 2 of this Order, my tentative findings may become final; and

4. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 11th day of April, 2011.
